Warren Hendrickson, Airport Manager

- Provided a schedule for the annual Fly-In and Car Show being held at the airport the Saturday of Labor Day weekend. He reported on details of the various events taking place noting that, with the help of Marketing Coordinator Spenser Czuleger, a new airport brochure was put together and will be handed out to all pilots. He thanked Avian for offering all participating volunteer pilots a fuel discount and for hosting a BBQ for all volunteers. Further detail was provided on the Young Eagles flights and the marketing/advertising for the event along with discussion on the car show.

Jim Rothlin, Chief Executive Officer

- Along with James Weaver, Director of Marine Facilities, met with Sound West Group on progress of their Marina Square development with discussion centered around how soon parking could be available for marina tenants. Mr. Weaver responded to questions from the Board.
- Reminder that on September 24 the Port is hosting a legislative luncheon with a presentation, tour, and discussion about upcoming capital projects. SAFE Boats will also be providing a tour of their facility.
- November 19 is the date for the community meeting during which the economic impact the Port provides to the community will be shared.

- Blackberry festival is this upcoming weekend which signifies the end of boating season at the marinas. It is also Labor Day weekend and all moorage is booked with waitlists at both marinas.
- American Cruise Lines will be visiting the Bremerton Marina again on Saturday, September 21, departing the next day; another visit is scheduled for October 9. Mr. Weaver responded to questions from the Board about what the Port can offer the cruise ship during their visits. Commissioner Stokes offered to lead a tour of the U.S. Naval Undersea Museum in Keyport. Mr. Rothlin commended marina staff for all their efforts during the cruise ship visits.
